Affirmative Defenses

51. Some or all of Plaintiffs' claims are barred under the applicable statute of limitations.

52. The alleged violations of the FLSA were neither knowing nor based on reckless disregard of the provisions of the FLSA. Therefore, the applicable statute of limitations is two years back from the date of the filing of this action.

53. The alleged violations of the FLSA were taken in good faith, and Defendants reasonably believed that their conduct complied with the provisions of the FLSA. Defendants are thus entitled to the good faith defense against claims for liquidated damages.

54. Some or all of Defendants' acts or omissions complained of were taken in good faith in conformity with and in reliance on administrative regulations, orders, rulings, approvals, or interpretations of the United States Department of Labor, Wage and Hour Division, as well as administrative practices and/or enforcement policies of that. Accordingly, Defendants have a good faith defense against all liability in this matter.

Wherefore, Defendants pray that Plaintiffs take nothing, that they recover their attorney's fees, and for such other and further relief to which Defendants may show themselves to be justly entitled.

Respectfully submitted,
